New York Bank President Also Urges Intelligent Revision of Income Tax—Lend to Foreigners.

(Charles Phelps Cushing, in Leslie's.) Few men can draw their conclusions upon what is going on in the world of finance from such a wealth of accurate and widely gleaned information as can Charles P. Cushing, president of the National City company.

Mr. Cushing hesitated to attempt a forecast for 1932. Then he began, frankly, to explain the reasons why—how the case hinged on "life."

"It seems to me that the difficulty of attempting to make a forecast for any definite period, such as for the coming 12 months of 1932 is because of the impossibility of saying when certain obviously necessary corrections will take place in what are now truly basic faults."

"When will the public and labor take steps to re-establish confidence in the minds of capital that fair play can be counted upon? Surely not until legislation has been passed that assures to railway capital fair treatment, surely not until the public attitude has turned toward public service, corporations changes from one end of the country to the other. While not playing fair with public service companies, who are struggling along at old rates and with double expenses, can capital be expected to permit a flow of its money that will enable such companies to command labor and products essential to further development?"

"Surely, not until a way has been found to lend dollars to foreigners which dollars can be used in America in the purchase of goods, can we expect a stable export demand. And unless existing exchange rates, we must certainly look not only for a falling off in exports of merchandise, but also sooner or later, as foreign countries themselves get into production, we must look for increased imports at figures which will make difficult the competition of our own industries. When will the way be found to correct this situation?"

"Do the American people realize to what extent the present situation on incomes are disastrous affecting the credit structure? And will the year 1932 see such revisions as to remove the strangling grip that is already in evidence? If the most favorable railway legislation conceivable were passed today, and if the public attitude toward public service corporations were to change overnight, would it be possible in a big way, to finance such corporations so long as the present rate of surpluses on incomes prevails?"

"Can the corporations which must look to fixed maturity forms of financing as represented by bonds and notes, expect to put out such obligations at normal rates of interest, and have such obligations taken in a substantial way by the large investors of this country, when the present income tax laws take from this 70 per cent of the income received? Will 1932 substitute financial sanity for political expediency in this regard? Will our tax laws be so revised as to make consumption rather than production, which is unquestionably, the present trend?"

"Note, I am not urging a campaign against spending or against putting money to work. If we care for America's future, the money we put money to work the better."

"To bring this about, nothing will aid more quickly than intelligent revision of the income tax, and intelligent legislation permitting development of such vital utilities as the railroads."

NEW YORK, Feb. 2. (Sp.)—United Americans, the new patriotic association, the national committee of which held its first meeting in this city on Dec. 10, announces that 15 states already have organized state committees preparatory to the great national patriotic revival early next spring. The states are as follows: Alabama, Arizona, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Mississippi, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Texas, Vermont and Wyoming.

The District of Columbia also has formed a committee. Four more states will organize committees within the next few days, while strong organizations already at work along similar lines in four other states are to affiliate with United Americans for more effective efforts.

These affiliations call attention to the fact that the whole country seems to be awakening to the need for a comprehensive and thorough crusade for Americanization. Organizers for United Americans have found no fewer than 11 state committees in the course of their Americanizing the masses, and also adults, as evidence that leaders everywhere now realize that these untrained minds are fertile soil in which to plant the idea of revolution and communism.

Originators of these various state organizations are beginning to realize that the Americanization movement is not to be dealt with in a desultory way, but that present conditions call for a comprehensive national campaign under unified command. For this reason they welcome the advent of United Americans. The field director of the organized North Dakota committee at Fargo reports the most enthusiastic meeting in his experience.

United Americans is a national body created for the purpose of mobilizing all patriotic Americans for the purpose of preserving constitutional government, developing American institutions thereunder and thus promoting conditions for greater contentment.

The national patriotic revival scheduled for next spring will include a brief intensive crusade in the course of which it is hoped that not fewer than 5,000,000 members will be enrolled, each individual of whom will be expected to do his full share in a continuing campaign of education in Americanism which will not end until the national spirit is purged of every un-American doctrine.

This education in Americanism is to be accomplished by a variety of means, including a select corps of men of national prominence who will deliver addresses wherever they will address meetings in factories, church forums, clubs, or speak from soap boxes, not occasionally, but constantly. Printed matter also is to be distributed freely.

"For some time we have received complaints from private persons and from societies. No one may emphatically state that no complaints have come from the Watch and Ward. In some cases we refer the matter to the police, in others we make an investigation through the department."

Many a woman loses the silky, fluffy and brilliant appearance of her hair through habitual use of the hot curling iron. Certainly it can do the hair no good to dry up its natural oil, since the life out of it, making it harsh, brittle and dull. And there's no excuse for continuing the use of that destructive instrument, now that we know what can be accomplished by applying plain liquid salverine.

RUNE STONE OLDEST HISTORICAL DOCUMENT

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 2.—That the rune stone found at Kensington, Minn., four years ago is the oldest native document of American history is the contention of Hjalmar R. Holland, of Racine, Wis.

The rune stone has an inscription which represents that it was deposited by a party of Norsemen who were in Minnesota in 350. Many scholars who have turned their attention to the matter regard the inscription as a hoax, while others have accepted it as historically valid.

Mr. Holland argues vigorously in support of the stone's historicity, assuming that the Norsemen reached Minnesota by way of Hudson bay and Nelson river.

HAD TERRIBLE COUGH IN BED 3 YEARS

In 3 weeks, she was out on the street again, feeling fine.

"In 1918 I had a gripe, followed by pneumonia which left me with a severe cough. I coughed constantly from morning till night, and then would wake up in the night and cough and choke. I lost flesh and my appetite was very poor. I doctored with a specialist for over a year, and had several other doctors, but got no relief and of late last winter I was bed-ridden, had chills and fever and got so weak I could not sit up in bed 5 minutes without fainting."

"In February, 1919, I started on Milk's Emulsion. I was then in bed, but in 3 weeks I was able to be up and on the streets. Just think of it! For three years I have been a physical wreck, in bed most of the time. Milk's Emulsion had brought me out in wonderful shape. My friends all tell me how well I'm looking, for they didn't expect me to be living today."—Miss M. Russell, 1003 Opelousas St., Algiers, La.

"In thousands of just such cases, Milk's Emulsion has brought the same wonderful relief and improvement. It costs nothing to try."

Milk's Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, promotes appetite and puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. It helps build up flesh and strength, and is a powerful aid in relieving and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are usually cured in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.25 per bottle. The Milk's Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.
